Molly is a troubled child going through hardships of her foster parents. She resides in Maine with them and believes she is getting too old for the system she is in. Molly was placed into this system after her father passed away due to a motor vehicle accident while her mother was addicted to drugs. Molly, the main character, is of Penobscot Idion descent and now lives with her automatically chosen foster parents, Dina and Ralph. The two parents have poor communication with their foster child which plunges Molly into a deeper state of sadness. Despite Dina's hate towards Molly, she keeps her in the household only to continue benefitting from the government funding for foster parenting.
