This travel guide sets out to reveal the everyday concerns, issues and pleasures that are unique to women but are rarely touched upon by guides usually written by men. The subjects of harassment and safety are dealt with and women are told if they are likely to be treated as an honoured guest, an honorary man or an easy target. Listings are provided for women's organizations, venues and specialist provisions. Introductory background and recent historical and political updates give pointers about the issues important to women in each country. In this edition 15 new countries are covered including Burkina Faso, Cambodia, Costa Rica, Honduras, Laos, Malaysia, Russia, Thailand, Tibet, Uganda and Ukraine.
