The Reincarnation of Albino Luciani: In Search of the Human Soul Lucien Gregoire

Lucien Gregoire, friend-biographer of Albino Luciani (the 33-day Pope John Paul I), has written books on the evolution of world religions in a simple and enlightening way so that a child can easily understand them. This is one of them. In 1947, Albino Luciani defended his thesis 'The Origin of the Human Soul . . .' in which he defined the human soul-just what is it one is trying to save? What's more, he stumbled upon the secret of eternal life. The relatively heavy theological intellectual complexity of Luciani's thesis is presented in a series of fun and entertaining conversations with a ten year old boy. As Dante once took the reader through the levels of hell, the reincarnated Luciani takes the reader through the heavens of the Christian, the Jew, the Muslim, the Hindu, the Buddhist, the Tao, and one more--a long lost religion holding the secret to eternal life. One no longer has to guess. One can know in this life, one will live forever. Listen as Albino Luciani tells you what he meant, when he told us, "Don't knock yourself out over smart monkeys and Adam and Eve. Each of us is responsible for our own evolution. We can either choose to remain as mortal men, or we can evolve as Gods" Content and conclusions in 'The Reincarnation of Albino Luciani' are consistent with that presented in defense of his thesis 'The Origin of the Human Soul...' at the Gregorian University in Rome Feb 27, 1947.
