PARTY GIRL by Cassandra Cole

Jessica Hart is the long-suffering assistant of egotistical music producer, Simon Hewitt.

She is also an amazing singer, though it's a talent she doesn't share with anyone.

When she is given the chance to fix a music track for a famous artist who can barely sing, record executive Sarah Maxwell takes notice.

She overhears Jessica singing to herself in the studio late one night and admiration quickly turns to friendship, which eventually leads to unbridled passion and desire.

Will Jessica remain under Simon's wing or will she, with Sarah's help, blossom into something more and learn to fly on her own?
