Is There A God Volume 1: Why Do Some People Not Believe in God? (Is there A God?) Leslie Buckland Jnr

“Is there a God?” is a series of five books that challenges believers and non-believers to consider carefully developed arguments with strong supporting evidence in addressing the age-old issues related to whether God is a myth or fact.

Leslie Buckland Jnr presents plausible and readily defensible arguments in addressing this sensitive question.

Volume 1 deals with the question as to why some people do not believe in God. His analysis is as intriguing as it is revealing.

This is a must read if you believe that there is a God. If you are a non-believer, be warned this might cause you to change your whole perspective.

This is a powerful tool for churches to recommend to their members and to incorporate in their educational programs.
