Welcome to Evansville, a sleepy Texas town on the verge of a boom.

After growing up in a dying town, with only two restaurants, no movie theater, and no future, waitress Cassidy Simon wants out. For once, luck is on her side when the oil boom comes to South Texas. She's determined to use it for her advantage, starting up an RV park for the oilfield workers to add to her escape fund. She's never been out of Texas, and she's itching for adventure.

Grady McKenna couldn't get away from his family's ranch fast enough when he was a teenager, but a tour in the Air Force in the Middle East is enough to convince him there's no place like home. He's seen the world, had his adventure. Now he's ready to contribute to his family's legacy in Evansville.

Naturally, the woman who draws his attention is the one intent on slipping through his fingers. How can he convince her life with him will be all the adventure she needs?
