Taking the Long Way Home A.K. Hitchcock

Mrs. Hensley can't take one more second of her children's bickering, but never imagined that when she sent them out for a day of fishing, the real journey they would embark upon. Andrea, Kevin and Heather also never dreamed that a wish Andrea would make after a childish prank would take them to a world beyond anything they could ever imagine. Not only do they need to learn to get along, but also to work with a odd assortment of creatures to defeat the villain and gain control of the stones that will bring them home. Adventure, friendships and a new knowledge of strength between siblings brings them home with a definite change in attitude. This book combines outrageous fantasy and a couple of simple lessons it wouldn't hurt anyone to learn.
