Excerpted from the back cover: "From Ohio to Connecticut to Texas and Washington, D.C., Bush men and women have made millions of dollars, dominated the U.S. government, and created a legacy unlike any other family. Prescott Bush was a two-time senator from Connecticut, working with Dwight D. Eisenhower. His son George H.W. was a congressman, the head of the Republican National Committee during Watergate, the head of the CIA, Vice President under Ronald Reagan and the forty-first president of the United States. His son Jeb is governor of Florida, and a future presidential conadidate, while his eldest son, George W., is the forty-third president and possibly the most controversial one the U.S. has ever had."
